

Grand Jury Returns 118 Indictments: Men Indicted on charges of Carjacking and Robbery

Anton A. Bell, Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Hampton, announced that a grand jury meeting in Hampton Circuit Court today returned indictments against 65 individuals charging 121 separate offenses.

Alashiquan McCain Brown and Tysheen Devion Payne were indicted on charges of Carjacking, Robbery, Conspiracy to Rob and Use of a Firearm. These charges stem from an armed confrontation that occurred on December 16, 2011, on Norwood Circle in Hampton. Both Brown and Payne remain in custody at Hampton City Jail.

Allen Leon Kemp, was indicted on charges of Shooting from a vehicle, two counts of Use of a Firearm, and two counts of Attempted Maiming. These charges stem from an attack that occurred on August 1, 2012, on Jamestown Road. Kemp remains in custody at Hampton City Jail pending a trial in Circuit Court scheduled for November 8, 2012.

Patrick Ryan Amick, was indicted on charges of two counts of felony Hit and Run and one count of Driving Under the Influence. These events took place on August 7, 2012. A trial date of November 14, 2012, has been scheduled.

Of those defendants indicted today, 15% face felony drug charges.

The grand jury also indicted two (2) individuals on charges of felony Driving Under the Influence. Those individuals are:

Defendant Name	Charges
Omar Raushaun Caudle	DUI – 4th Conviction within 10 Years
Dionycia Catherine Brown	DUI – 3rd Conviction within 5 Years

Please contact Anton Bell if additional information is desired.